

Contents

Why I wrote this book	15
Freedom	21
Your first steps towards freedom	23
The key to success is happiness	26
The three pillars of true wealth	29
Success is the universal measurement of life	32
We're all fat, sick and nearly dead	34
You need more of the green stuff	36
You might as well enjoy what you're doing	38
We're secretly all "wantrepreneurs"	41
The ticket to a better life	44
Get more of the good stress	47
The Great Escape	51
Travel no longer is an escape from life	53
My attempted escape from cubicle nation	56
Happy wife, unhappy life?	59
Living on a lonely planet	63
A one-way ticket to hell	66
I participated in the creation of this life	70
Treating depression with chemicals	72
Money is an excuse, hardly ever a reason	76
Is it time to cut the umbilical cord?	79
The mediocre club is holding you back	82
The death trap of "what if"	85

The comfortable bed of excuses	87
The Pursuit Of Happiness	91
Feeding our hunger for happiness	93
Maybe it's better to be unhappy, after all	97
Your mind and body affect your happiness	99
Becoming an inverse paranoid	101
Being a creature of habit makes us happy	104
Money doesn't buy happiness... or does it?	107
Living a life by experience	110
Make limitations your best friend	113
Discovering the secret path to a happy life	116
Why Work Is Weird	121
It's just a job	123
The illusion of corporate culture	126
The price-tag of a fake sense of security	131
Busyness kills creativity	135
Mastering the art of being unavailable	138
Evolution is the new revolution	141
Goals for employers and employees	143
A work-life balance is overrated	146
How to become good at anything	149
Making a difference matters	153
Being Your Own boss	157
It's still just a job	159
Just a hobby makes the difference	162
Building something for yourself	166

The reward of overcoming difficulties	170
The only real goal is mastery	174
We're all in sales	177
The risk of entrepreneurship	180
All it takes is to get started	183
Finding Your Passion	187
Turning my dream into a nightmare	189
Keep your eyes on the prize	192
Love what you do, and do what you love	196
Motivation or inspiration: the difference	199
You must let go of what's holding you back	201
You're the author of your own story	204
The New Networking	207
Have a close look at the people in your life	209
The definition of friendship	212
Everything is always about business	215
Authentic Self-Representation	217
Never stop selling	220
Holding on, letting go and moving on	222
Money And Happiness	225
The troubled affair of money and happiness	227
Leave everything in a better place	230
Not all rewards are monetary	233
Pay yourself first and don't spend it all	236
Money is all about priorities	239
One million and one dollar are the same	241

Going to zero can be a good thing	243
Focus on money coming towards you	245
Create multiple sources of income	247
Don't be afraid to ask for help	250
The real value of money	252
The Right Attitude	257
Personality, character and attitude	259
Put your subconscious brain to work	262
Become a magnet attracting good things	267
Commit to lifelong learning and growing	271
Develop an attitude of gratitude	273
It's not just about positive thinking	275
Goals Into Action	279
You must turn goals into action	281
Goals are like clouds	283
Writing it down helps reach your goals	285
Don't focus on just one: you can have it all	287
You already know what it is you need to do	290
The meaning of not achieved goals	293
It doesn't take much to get started	296
Keep taking the next step	298
Parting words	300
Wait... there's more!	303
About the author	305